MARQUIS

MARQUIS is a world-class manufacturing company and the largest book manufacturer in Canada. Every member of our large team of over 550 passionate employees is at the heart of our business priorities, as well as at the heart of the action in the publishing industry. Marquis is a Canadian leader in growth today because of its mastery of technology, its sense of innovation and the close relationships between our team and our publisher customers. Our mission is to be the favorite partner of publishers by offering innovative integrated printing and logistical solutions.

Marquis operates three production plants: in Louiseville, Montmagny and Toronto. We also have offices in Québec City for the Marquis Laurentien division, specialized in the production of yearbooks and school agendas, and Marquis Interscript, our division specializing in graphic production. Marquis also has offices in Sherbrooke and Montréal.
